First Round Playoff Games

Site Priorities
Two wild card teams (fourth- and fifth-best records) from each conference will enter the first round of the playoffs. The wild cards from the same conference will play each other. Home clubs will be the clubs with the best won-lost-tied percentage in the regular season. If tied in record, the tie will be broken by the tie-breaking procedure already in effect.

Divisional Playoff Games

Site Priorities
In each conference, the two division winners with the highest won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season will be the home teams. The division winner with the best percentage will be host to the wild card winner from the first round playoff, and the division winner with the second best percentage will be host to the third division winner, unless the wild card team is from the same division as the winner with the highest percentage. In that case, the division winner with the best percentage will be host to the third division winner and the second highest division winner will be host to the wild card.

Any ties in won-lost-tied percentage will be broken by the tie-breaking procedures already in effect.

Waivers

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so—thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as a recall of a waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 9, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

Active List

The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for preseason, regular season, and postseason games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with an unlimited number of players but thereafter must meet a series of mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted to dress up to 49 players for each regular season and postseason game during the 1984 season. The Active List maximums and dates for 1984 are:

August 14 ..... 70 players
August 21 ..... 60 players
August 27 ..... 49 players

Reserve List

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Reserve/Injured who were physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks from the date of going onto Reserve may be re-activated by their clubs upon clearing procedural recall waivers; in addition, each club will have five free re-activations for players meeting the four-week requirement who were placed on Reserve following the final cutdown. Clubs participating in postseason competition will be granted an additional free re-activation. Players not meeting the four-week requirement may not return in the same season to the Active List of the club which originally placed them on Reserve, but may be assigned through the waiver system to other clubs. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season on through the postseason.

Trades

Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed in 1984 through October 9, after which all trading will end until January 28, 1985.

Tie-Breaking Procedures

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular season schedules.

To Break a Tie Within a Division

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with identical won-lost-tied percentages, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker reverts to step 1 of two-club format.)

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

To Break a Tie for the Wild Card Team

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken.

1. If the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after other clubs are eliminated, tie-breaker reverts to step 1 of applicable two-club format.)

1. Head-to-head sweep. (Applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others, or if one club has lost to each of the others.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

Tie-Breaking Procedure for Selection Meeting

If two or more clubs are tied for selection order, the conventional strength of schedule tie-breaker will be applied, subject to the following exceptions for playoff teams.

1. The Super Bowl winner will be last and the Super Bowl loser will be next-to-last.
2. Any non-Super Bowl playoff team involved in a tie moves down in drafting priority as follows:
   A. Participation by a club in the playoffs without a victory adds one-half victory to the club's regular season won-lost-tied record.
   B. For each victory in the playoffs, one full victory will be added to the club's regular season won-lost-tied record.
3. Clubs with the best won-lost-tied records after these steps are applied will drop to their appropriate spots at the bottom of the tied segment. In no case will the above process move a club lower than the segment in which it was initially tied.

Look for in 1984

Things that could happen in 1984:

• Either Franco Harris, Pittsburgh, or Walter Payton, Chicago—or both—could surpass Jim Brown as the NFL's all-time leader in rushing yardage. Brown gained 12,312 yards in his nine seasons in the NFL (1957-65). Harris, who begins his thirteenth year in 1984, starts 1984 with 11,950 yards, while Payton, in his tenth season, starts with 11,625 yards. (Harris already holds the record for career rushing attempts with 2,881.)

• The same two players, Payton and Harris, are in pursuit of another of Brown's career records, most combined yardage. (This category includes all yards gained via rushing, receiving, and various returns.) Brown's total was 15,459. Payton starts 1984 with a total of 15,252, while Harris begins the season with 14,449. (Harris already holds the record for combined career attempts, 3,212.)

• John Riggins, Washington, needs 564 yards rushing to become the fifth player in NFL history to accumulate 10,000 yards. In addition to Brown, Harris, and Payton, Riggins, now entering his thirteenth season, would join O.J. Simpson, who gained 11,236 yards in 11 years.

• Riggins needs six touchdowns to become the fifth player in NFL history to score 100 touchdowns. Brown (126), Lenny Moore (113), Don Hutson (105), and Harris (100) all have reached that mark. Payton starts the 1984 season 13 touchdowns shy of 100.

• Ken Anderson, Cincinnati, needs 48 pass completions to become the fourth quarterback in NFL history to reach 2,500 career completions. The only players to have reached that mark are Fran Tarkenton (3,686), Johnny Unitas (2,830), and Jim Hart (2,590), who will be playing his first year with Washington after 18 seasons in St. Louis. Dan Fouts, San Diego, needs 232 completions to reach the 2,500 mark.

• Three individuals have the opportunity to reach 600 career receptions. Charlie Joiner, San Diego (596), Harold Carmichael, a free agent (589), and Harold Jackson, Seattle (579), are all within striking distance not only of the 600 mark, but also the career record of 649 receptions held by Charley Taylor. Besides Taylor, only two others have caught 600 career passes: Don Maynard (633) and Raymond Berry (631).

• Joiner needs 19 more yards on receptions to become the fourth player in history to reach the 10,000-yard mark. Only Maynard (11,834), Jackson (10,372), and Lance Alworth (10,266) have reached this level.

• John James, Houston, needs five punts to become only the second player in NFL history to punt 1,000 times. Jerrel Wilson is the all-time record holder with 1,072.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach, Marion Campbell

Pro Career: Campbell was named head coach of the Eagles on January 10, 1983 after six seasons as the club's defensive coordinator. Campbell's first association with the Eagles came in 1956 when, as a defensive lineman, he was traded to Philadelphia by San Francisco. He was the 49ers' fourth-round draft choice in 1951 but spent three years in the Army before he joined the 49ers. During his six-year playing career with the Eagles, Campbell played defensive tackle on the Eagles' 1960 NFL championship team and played in the 1960 and 1961 Pro Bowls. His pro coaching career began in 1962 as an assistant with the Boston Patriots. Two years later he moved into the NFL coaching ranks where he developed outstanding defensive lines at Minnesota (1964-66) and Los Angeles (1967-68). He joined Atlanta in 1969 and was the Falcons' head coach from November of 1974 to October of 1976. His head coaching record was 6-19, including a 4-10 mark in 1975, his only full season as a head coach. He was released by the Falcons after nine games in 1976 and joined the Eagles in 1977. Career record: 11-30.

Background: At the University of Georgia, where he played tackle, he was an All-Southeastern Conference selection three times and the team's most valuable player his senior year.

Players who report to an NFL team for the first time are designated on rosters as rookies (R). If a player reported to an NFL training camp in a previous year but was not on the active squad for three or more regular season or postseason games, he is listed on the first-year roster and designated by a (1). Thereafter, a player who is on the active squad for three or more regular season or postseason games is credited with an additional year of playing experience.

FIRST WEEK SUMMARY

Opening the season on the road was unusually kind to 12 of 14 teams as the National Football League began its sixty-fourth year. Only two teams, New Orleans and Kansas City, were winners at home. George Rogers gained a club-record 206 yards and scored two touchdowns to lead the Saints to their first opening-day victory in three seasons under Bum Phillips. In Kansas City, John Mackovic posted his first NFL head coaching win as the Chiefs downed the Seahawks. Three other rookie head coaches were victorious. Atlanta's Dan Henning used a pair of Steve Bartkowski touchdown passes to beat Chicago. Freeman McNeil rushed for 120 yards to help Joe Walton secure his initial victory, a 41-29 win over the Chargers. John Robinson made the transition from college to the pros an easy one as the Rams defeated the Giants. Frank Kush, beginning his second season in Baltimore following the Colts 0-8-1 mark in 1982, got his first win as Baltimore beat New England after 30 seconds of overtime. Green Bay also needed an extra period to defeat Houston. Jan Stenerud's second field goal followed five touchdown passes by Lynn Dickey to give the Packers a 41-38 win. Two teams were shutout winners. Detroit blanked Tampa Bay 11-0 as William Gay recorded 5½ sacks for the Lions and Miami shutout Buffalo 12-0 on four Uwe von Schamann field goals. Dallas and Washington renewed their NFC East rivalry with the Cowboys prevailing by a point. Danny White brought the Cowboys back from a 23-3 halftime deficit by throwing for three touchdowns in the second half. Steve DeBerg's touchdown pass finished the Broncos comeback win over the Steelers. Running back Ted Brown's three touchdowns helped the Vikings over the Browns. Matt Millen's interception led to the Raiders' second touchdown as Los Angeles defeated Cincinnati 20-10.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

Philadelphia 22, San Francisco 17—At Candlestick Park, attendance 55,775. Reserve quarterback Joe Pisarcik ignited a 16-point third-quarter outburst to help Marion Campbell secure his first head coaching win with the Eagles. Pisarcik came on for Ron Jaworski, who had suffered a concussion in the second period, and completed 8 of 10 passes for 101 yards, including a 17-yard scoring pass to Hubie Oliver, that gave the Eagles a 19-10 advantage. The 49ers led 10-3 at the half, but Michael Haddix scored on a one-yard run early in the third period to tie the score and Tony Franklin's second of three field goals (a 30-yarder) put the Eagles ahead to stay. Roynell Young's fumble recovery in Philadelphia's end zone with just over a minute to play sent the 49ers to their third consecutive opening-day loss.

Miami defeated New England for the sixteenth straight time in the Orange Bowl 34-24. Jim Plunkett directed a pair of 80-yard scoring drives as the Raiders beat the Oilers 20-6. Ron Springs ran for two touchdowns in Dallas' 34-17 comeback win over NFC East rival St. Louis. Rams rookie running back Eric Dickerson scored three times to lead Los Angeles over the Saints. Three other running backs turned in big games to lead their team's victories. Franco Harris rushed for 118 yards to become the third NFL player to gain over 11,000 yards in a career as Pittsburgh defeated Green Bay 25-21. Seattle's Curt Warner broke loose for 128 yards rushing and two touchdowns to help the Seahawks to their seventh consecutive win over the Jets. Outstanding efforts by San Diego's Chuck Muncie and Rolf Benirschke cast a shadow on Kansas City's first Monday night appearance in six years. Muncie ran for 110 yards and one touchdown while Benirschke kicked a 51-yard field goal in the Chargers 17-14 win. Benirschke converted one of two field goal attempts to become the NFL's leader in career field goal accuracy with a 72.9% rating. Ali Haji-Sheikh's 30-yard field goal 3:38 into overtime brought the Giants a 16-13 victory and Bill Parcells his first NFL head coaching win. Kay Stephenson got his initial win as the Buffalo head coach with a 10-6 defeat of Cincinnati. San Francisco's Joe Montana and Cleveland's Brian Sipe each threw four touchdown passes for their respective teams as the 49ers sank the Vikings 48-17 on Thursday night and the Browns edged the Lions 31-26. THIRD WEEK SUMMARY

Home teams were victorious more often than not for the first time this season, winning 9 of 14 games. The Cowboys and the Raiders remained the only clubs with undefeated records. Dextor Clinkscale and Michael Downs scored touchdowns 12 seconds apart to cap Dallas' 28-13 comeback win over the New York Giants. Meanwhile, the Raiders easily beat the Dolphins in the Coliseum. Los Angeles, led by Marcus Allen's 105 yards rushing, capitalized on Miami turnovers to open a 27-0 lead and improve their Monday night record to 20-2-1. Two touchdown passes in the final three minutes by rookie Dan Marino, who was playing for the first time in the NFL, were all the Dolphins could muster against the league's number-one ranked defense. Two other teams were first-time losers. The Rams fell to Green Bay 27-24 as Jan Stenerud kicked a 36-yard field goal with one second remaining. Tony Franklin's 43-yard field goal with 57 seconds left helped the Eagles to a 13-10 victory over the Broncos. New England won for the first time as Tony Collins ran for 212 yards and three touchdowns to help the Patriots christen newly dedicated Sullivan Stadium with a 23-13 win over the Jets. Curt Warner became the first Seattle running back to rush for over 100 yards (109) in consecutive games as the Seahawks defeated San Diego 34-31. Morten Andersen's 41-yard field goal after 10:57 of overtime gave New Orleans a 34-31 win over Chicago. The Saints' victory overshadowed a remarkable performance by the Bears' Walter Payton. Payton ran for 161 yards and completed two touchdown passes to rookie Willie Gault, including a 21-yarder that sent the game into overtime. Benny Ricardo's fourth field goal of the game provided Minnesota with a 19-16 overtime win in Tampa. Washington trailed Kansas City 12-0 at halftime but mounted a second-half assault to beat the Chiefs 27-12. In Buffalo, the Bills gave up their first touchdown at home in 20 quarters and had to rely on Joe Ferguson's three scoring passes to complete a 28-23 comeback win over Baltimore. Joe Montana threw two touchdown passes in San Francisco's 42-27 win over St. Louis.

FOURTH WEEK SUMMARY

Buffalo, Miami, Baltimore, New England, and New York pulled off a rare five-game sweep for the AFC East. The Bills got 166 yards rushing from Joe Cribbs and seven sacks from their defense to down the Oilers 30-13. In Miami, the Dolphins won despite themselves. Miami committed a club-record-tying five fumbles and was intercepted twice but the Dolphins' defense came through, holding Kansas City to 155 total yards and winning 14-6. The Colts accumulated 461 total yards but needed Raul Allegre's 33-yard overtime field goal to edge the Bears 22-19. The Patriots defeated the Steelers for only the second time in their history 28-23. Pittsburgh dominated New England, running 86 plays to the Patriots' 45 and outgaining them 448 to 296, but Steve Grogan's 76-yard scoring bomb to Stephen Starring evened New England's record at 2-2. The Steelers' Franco Harris gained 106 yards to move ahead of O.J. Simpson into second place on the all-time rushing list with 11,309 yards. At Shea Stadium, a veteran quarterback and a rookie running back shared the spotlight. Richard Todd of the Jets completed 37 of 50 passes for 446 yards and Los Angeles' Eric Dickerson rushed for 192 yards to take over the NFL rushing lead with 645 yards. Pat Leahy's 26-yard field goal, following 8:22 of overtime, enabled the Jets to defeat the Rams 27-24. Cincinnati won for the first time in 1983 with a 23-17 victory over Tampa Bay. Cleveland needed Brian Sipe's 48-yard touchdown pass to Harry Holt to beat San Diego 30-24 in overtime and gain the top spot in the AFC Central. The Raiders scored on three consecutive second-half possessions to defeat Denver 22-7 and remain the only unbeaten team (4-0) in the AFC. Undefeated Dallas came away with the most improbable win of the day. The Cowboys were victimized by seven quarterback sacks, four interceptions, and two lost fumbles, yet only trailed the Saints by a point with two minutes to play. Anthony Dickerson found himself in the hero's role, sacking New Orleans quarterback Ken Stabler in the end zone for a safety with 1:58 remaining to give Dallas a 21-20 win. Jim Hart replaced Neil Lomax in the starting lineup and completed a 26-yard touchdown pass to Roy Green with 29 seconds left to lift the Cardinals to a 14-11 win over the Eagles. Joe Theismann's three touchdown passes helped make the Redskins first game in the Kingdome a successful one as Washington downed Seattle 27-17. San Francisco's Joe Montana threw for three scores as the 49ers beat the Falcons 24-20 to snap a six-game winless streak at Candlestick Park. SEVENTH WEEK SUMMARY

The Washington Redskins, the NFL's highest scoring team, took their scoring machine on the road for the second straight week but met their match in Green Bay. The Packers, ranked third in scoring, edged the Redskins 48-47 on Jan Stenerud's 20-yard field goal with 54 seconds left, climaxing the highest scoring game in Monday night history. The game produced five lead changes in the fourth quarter and would have had a sixth, but Mark Moseley's 39-yard field goal sailed wide on the game's final play. The loss, which snapped Washington's nine-game winning streak on the road, enabled Dallas, 37-7 winners over Philadelphia, to take a two-game lead in the NFC East. In Detroit, Billy Sims returned from a broken wrist which had sidelined him since September 11, and gained 77 yards and a touchdown to lead the Lions over the Bears 31-17. Minnesota capitalized on seven Houston turnovers to down the Oilers 34-14 and remain atop the NFC Central. Meanwhile, San Francisco and the Los Angeles Rams overcame divisional opponents New Orleans and Atlanta, respectively, to remain in a first-place tie in the NFC West. The 49ers relied on a team-record six field goals by Ray Wersching to defeat the Saints 32-13. The Falcons held Eric Dickerson to 64 yards rushing but Vince Ferragamo's two-yard touchdown pass to Mike Guman with 17 seconds remaining lifted the Rams to a 27-21 victory. Buffalo gained control of the top spot in the AFC East, relying on three Joe Ferguson touchdown passes and three field goals by Joe Danelo to beat the Colts 30-7. The Dolphins remained one game behind the Bills by defeating the Jets 32-14 on three Dan Marino touchdown passes and a club-record six interceptions. Pittsburgh took control of first place in the AFC Central by getting a pair of touchdowns from its defense (which intercepted six passes and recovered a fumble) in the Steelers' 44-17 win over the Browns. The Raiders had their AFC West lead cut to a single game as they lost in Seattle. The Seahawks capitalized on eight Raiders turnovers (five fumbles and three interceptions) and registered eight sacks to defeat Los Angeles 38-36. The Raiders dominated the Seahawks statistically, outgaining them 382 to 153 and allowing just two yards passing. EIGHTH WEEK SUMMARY

For the first time this season Dallas ran out of comebacks. The Raiders handed the Cowboys their first defeat of the year, 40-38, when Chris Bahr's 26-yard field goal with 20 seconds to play was good. Six Los Angeles turnovers kept Dallas within striking distance but the Raiders effectively shut down the Cowboys' offense, allowing just 319 total yards, including only 81 rushing. Only three home teams won this weekend. Among them were the Redskins, who downed the Lions 38-17 to close to only one game back of the NFC East-leading Cowboys. Ken Riley returned his sixtieth career interception 42 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bengals' 28-21 win over the Browns. The victory helped snap Cincinnati's three-game losing streak. In Denver, Steve DeBerg directed two fourth-quarter touchdown drives as the Broncos beat the Chargers 14-6. San Diego, playing without Dan Fouts and Chuck Muncie, generated 299 yards, thus ending its streak of 11 straight games with 400-or-more yards total offense. The Steelers opened a 24-0 lead at the half and held on to defeat the Seahawks 27-21 and take a two-game lead in the AFC Central. Miami's win gave it a share of first place with Buffalo in the AFC East. The Dolphins, despite a heavy rain, scored on three first-half possessions to beat the Colts 21-7. Meanwhile, the Bills were shutout by the Patriots 31-0 as Roland James intercepted three passes to help New England score 24 points in the final period. San Francisco avenged an earlier loss to the Rams by upending Los Angeles 45-35 to take sole possession of first place in the NFC West. The Saints posted a 24-21 comeback win over the Buccaneers to stay one game back (along with the Rams) of the 49ers. Atlanta climbed back into the hunt, snapping a four-game losing streak by defeating the Jets 27-21. New York led 21-0 before Billy "White Shoes" Johnson took control. Johnson scored on a 71-yard punt return and a 15-yard touchdown reception and set up two more scores on punt returns of 41 and 36 yards. Minnesota grabbed a two-game lead in the NFC Central as Benny Ricardo's 32-yard field goal 5:05 into overtime helped beat Green Bay 20-17. Kansas City was also victorious in overtime, 13-10 over Houston, while the Giants and Cardinals played to the seventh tie, 20-20, since the NFL instituted the overtime period in 1974. The three overtime contests brought the season total to 13, matching the season record set in 1980.

Eric Dickerson became the seventeenth rookie to rush for over a 1,000 yards in a season (1,096), but that didn't stop another rookie standout, Dan Marino, from contributing three touchdown passes to the Dolphins' 30-14 win over the Rams. Buffalo's Joe Ferguson threw four touchdown passes and the Bills held on to defeat the Saints 27-21. The Jets limited San Francisco's Wendell Tyler to nine yards on eight carries as New York snapped a three-game losing streak by beating the 49ers 23-13. Atlanta capitalized on four New England fumbles to defeat the Patriots 24-13. The Seahawks completed a season-sweep of the Raiders with a 34-21 victory, marking Chuck Knox's one-hundredth NFL head coaching win. The Raiders' loss, coupled with the Broncos' 27-24 come-from-behind victory over the Chiefs, gave Denver a share of the lead in the AFC West. TENTH WEEK SUMMARY

For the first time in their history, the Chicago Bears played a game without their patriarch George Halas, who died on October 31. The result was a 21-14 loss to the Rams, who once again turned Eric Dickerson loose for 127 yards rushing and two scores. Chicago's Walter Payton gained 62 yards on the ground to become the fourth player in NFL history to rush for over 11,000 yards in a career. The Rams joined New Orleans and San Francisco in a three-way tie for first place in the NFC West, thanks to Miami's 20-17 win at San Francisco. The Cowboys' 27-20 comeback victory over the Eagles insured Dallas of an NFL-record eighteenth winning season and helped the Cowboys keep a one-game lead in the NFC East over Washington, which defeated St. Louis 45-7. James Wilder gained a Tampa Bay record 219 yards rushing and scored on a club-record 75-yard run to lead the Buccaneers to their first win, a 17-12 victory over the Vikings. Despite the loss, Minnesota retained a one-game advantage in the NFC's Central Division over Green Bay and Detroit. Pittsburgh extended its lead in the AFC Central to three games by defeating San Diego 26-3. The Steelers limited the Chargers, who were playing without Dan Fouts, to 218 total yards in winning their sixth straight game. Returning quarterbacks were the difference in two games. Ken Anderson came back after a three-game layoff and guided the Bengals to a 55-14 victory over the Oilers. Jim Plunkett relieved injured Marc Wilson in the third quarter and directed scoring drives of 85 and 75 yards to lead the Raiders over the Chiefs 28-20. Staying just one game back of Los Angeles in the AFC West were Seattle and Denver. The Seahawks beat the Broncos 27-19 thanks to Curt Warner's 134 yards rushing and Dave Krieg's pair of touchdown passes. A tight race also developed in the AFC East where Baltimore and New England were one game behind. The Colts surprised the Jets 17-14 to end a three-game losing streak to New York. Meanwhile, in Foxboro, the Patriots used two touchdown receptions from rookie Clarence Weathers to ignite a 21-7 victory over the Bills and complete their first season-sweep over Buffalo since 1978.

The Patriots, who suffered their first scoreless game since 1975, also lost quarterback Steve Grogan with a broken leg. The Giants ended a seven-game winless streak with a 23-0 victory over the Eagles. New York's defense held Philadelphia to 79 yards total offense and let the Eagles cross midfield only once. Steve Bartkowski's 47-yard desperation pass to Billy "White Shoes" Johnson proved miraculous when Johnson stretched over the goal line, with no time remaining, to give Atlanta a 28-24 win. Dallas became the first team to clinch a playoff berth, its ninth straight, by downing Kansas City 41-21. The Redskins beat the Rams 42-20 by holding NFL rushing leader Eric Dickerson to just 37 yards. The loss dropped the Packers out of first place in the NFC Central. San Diego's Don Coryell hoped his return to St. Louis, where he was head coach from 1973-77, would be a winning one, but Cardinals quarterback Neil Lomax had other plans. Lomax passed for two touchdowns and ran for two more to lead St. Louis to a 44-14 win over the Chargers. Minnesota brought Pittsburgh's seven-game win streak to an end 17-14. Washington's 28-24 victory over Philadelphia guaranteed the Redskins a trip to the playoffs. John Riggins ran for two touchdowns to increase his season total to an NFL-record 21 rushing scores. Two overtime games helped produce the second-highest scoring weekend in history (725 points). Seattle beat Kansas City 51-48 on Norm Johnson's 42-yard field goal 1:46 into overtime. The win featured the Seahawk's 531-yard offensive attack led by Curt Warner's club-record 207 rushing yards on 32 carries. The 99 points scored by both teams were the third-highest total in NFL history. Atlanta grabbed its second comeback win in as many weeks. Kenny Johnson returned an interception 31 yards for a touchdown (his second scoring interception of the game), 2:13 into overtime, to give the Falcons a 47-41 victory. Brian Sipe threw three touchdown passes to power the Browns 41-23 victory over the Colts. The win helped Cleveland remain a game back in the AFC Central. FOURTEENTH WEEK SUMMARY

After 14 weeks of play, 19 teams remained in the Super Bowl XVIII race and only two divisions had crowned champions. The Raiders exploded for three touchdowns in two-and-a-half minutes to sack the Chargers 42-10 and capture their first AFC West title since 1976. Miami rallied from a 17-7 deficit to clinch the AFC Eastern Division championship with a 24-17 win over Houston. In the AFC Central, the Steelers' losing streak continued. Pete Johnson gained 126 yards on 38 carries and scored twice, and the Cincinnati offense outgained Pittsburgh's 350-154 as the Steelers lost their third consecutive game, 23-10 to the Bengals. Despite the loss, Pittsburgh still maintained a one-game advantage over Cleveland, which lost 27-6 to Denver. The Broncos' win kept them in the Wild Card hunt even though they trailed the Raiders by three games. Buffalo's Joe Cribbs rushed for a career-high 185 yards but it was Mike Kennedy's interception return for a score that proved decisive in the Bills' 14-9 victory over the Chiefs. The Jets celebrated their third straight win, 10-6 over the Colts, while the Patriots scored their first touchdown in 11 quarters to defeat the Saints 7-0 in a game played in snow and sleet at Sullivan Stadium. Washington and Dallas both won to keep the NFC Eastern Division top spot deadlocked. Joe Theismann completed three touchdown passes as the Redskins opened a 34-0 lead enroute to a 37-21 defeat of the Falcons. The Cowboys shut down the Seahawks' Curt Warner (22 yards rushing) and turned Tony Dorsett loose for 117 yards and two touchdowns to beat Seattle 35-10. Billy Sims helped Detroit take sole possession of first place in the NFC Central by rushing for over 100 yards for the fourth straight week to lead the Lions' 13-2 Monday night win over the Vikings. Meanwhile, the NFC West continued to be the league's most unpredictable division. Philadelphia beat the Rams 13-9 on Ron Jaworski's 29-yard touchdown pass to Tony Woodruff with 21 seconds left. San Francisco regained its share of the division lead, thanks in part to Roger Craig's three touchdowns, which helped defeat Tampa Bay 35-21.

FIFTEENTH WEEK SUMMARY

With a week to play, all three AFC division titles were claimed, while all three NFC crowns remained undecided. Six of 10 playoff berths were filled as 15 teams remained in contention for Super Bowl XVIII. The Steelers clinched the AFC Central title for the first time since 1979. Terry Bradshaw's initial start of the season inspired Pittsburgh to a 34-7 victory over the Jets who were eliminated from the playoff picture. Denver gained a postseason berth for the first time in four years as John Elway threw for three fourth-quarter touchdowns to rally the Broncos over the Colts 21-19. Still in contention for the AFC's remaining Wild Card berth were Seattle, 17-12 winners over the New York Giants, and New England, which defeated the Los Angeles Rams 21-7. Cleveland and Buffalo still held a glimmer of hope despite losses. The Browns got 153 yards rushing and three touchdowns from Mike Pruitt but came up short against the Oilers 34-27, while the Bills were beaten by the 49ers 23-10. San Francisco reclaimed first place in the NFC West with the win combined with the Rams loss to the Patriots. New Orleans renewed its Wild Card chances thanks to Morten Andersen's 50-yard field goal, 5:30 into overtime, which defeated Philadelphia 20-17. Green Bay took advantage of Cincinnati's 17-9 win over Detroit to deadlock the NFC Central Division race. The Packers, playing in a record fifth overtime game this season, came away with a 12-9 win over the Buccaneers as Jan Stenerud's 23-yard field goal was good after 4:07 of the extra period. Stenerud kicked four field goals to become the NFL's all-time career leader with 338, topping George Blanda's mark of 335. Lynn Dickey passed for 278 yards to become the first NFC quarterback to pass for over 4,000 yards in a season. Chicago removed Minnesota from playoff contention with a 19-13 win, the Bears' first victory in Minnesota since 1971. The battle for the NFC East leadership, a dead heat between Dallas and Washington the past four weeks, gained some stability. The Redskins overwhelmed the Cowboys 31-10 to assume possession of first place, as well as being able to hold their own destiny heading into the final week of the season. A victory would assure Washington the division title for the second straight season and the home field advantage throughout the playoffs.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Professional Football Hall of Fame is located in Canton, Ohio, site of the organizational meeting on September 17, 1920, from which the National Football League evolved. The NFL recognized Canton as the Hall of Fame site on April 27, 1961. Canton area individuals, foundations, and companies donated almost $400,000 in cash and services to provide funds for the construction of the original two-building complex, which was dedicated on September 7, 1963. The original Hall of Fame complex was almost doubled in size with the completion of a $620,000 expansion project that was dedicated on May 10, 1971. A second expansion project was completed on November 20, 1978. It features three exhibition areas and a theater twice the size of the original one.

The Hall represents the sport of pro football in many ways—through three large and colorful exhibition galleries, in the twin enshrinement halls, with numerous fan-participation electronic devices, a research library, and an NFL gift shop.

In recent years, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has become an extremely popular tourist attraction. At the end of 1983, a total of 3,531,544 fans had visited the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

New members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame are elected annually by a 29-member National Board of Selectors, made up of media representatives from every league city and the president of the Pro Football Writers Association. Between three and six new members are elected each year. An affirmative vote of approximately 80 percent is needed for election.

Any fan may nominate any eligible player or contributor simply by writing to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Players must be retired five years to be eligible, while a coach need only to be retired with no time limit specified. Contributors (administrators, owners, et al.) may be elected while they are still active.

The charter class of 17 enshrinees was elected in 1963 and the honor roll now stands at 123 with the election of a four-man class in 1984. That class consists of Willie Brown, Mike McCormack, Charley Taylor, and Arnie Weinmeister.

A CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1892 Rutgers and Princeton had played a college soccer football game, the first ever, in 1869. Rugby had gained favor over soccer, however, and from it rugby football, then football, had evolved among American colleges. It was also played by athletic clubs. Intense competition existed between two Pittsburgh clubs, Allegheny Athletic Association and Pittsburgh Athletic Club. William (Pudge) Heffelfinger, former star at Yale, brought in by AAA, paid $500 to play in game against PAC, becoming first person known to have been paid openly to play football, Nov. 12. AAA won 4–0 when Heffelfinger picked up PAC fumble and ran for touchdown, which then counted four points.

1898 Morgan AC founded on Chicago's South Side, later became Chicago Normals, Racine (a Chicago street) Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, and St. Louis Cardinals, oldest continuing operation in pro football.

1899 Duquesne Country and Athletic Club, or Pittsburgh Duquesnes, incurred large payroll signing players returning from Spanish-American War, sought help from Pittsburgh Sportsman William C. Temple. He bought football team from athletic club, became first known individual club owner.

1901 Temple and Barney Dreyfuss of baseball Pirates formed new team and urged cross-state rivalry with Philadelphia.

1902 Philadelphia Athletics, managed by Connie Mack, and Nationals or Phillies formed football teams. Athletics won first night football game, 39–0 over Kanaweola AC at Elmira, N.Y., Nov. 21.

Athletics claimed pro championship after winning two, losing one against Phillies and going 1–1–1 against Pittsburgh Pros. Pitcher Rube Waddell played for Athletics, pitcher Christy Mathewson was fullback for Pittsburgh in one game.

"World Series," actually four-team tournament, played among Athletics, New York Knickerbockers, Watertown, N.Y., Red and Blacks, and Syracuse AC was played in Madison Square Garden. Philadelphia and Syracuse played first indoor football game before 3,000, Dec. 28. Syracuse, with Pop Warner at guard, won game 6–0, went on to win tournament.

1903 Franklin (Pa.) AC won second and last "World Series" of pro football over Philadelphia, Watertown, and Orange, N.J. AC.

Pro football declined in Pittsburgh area. Some PAC players hired by Massillon, Ohio, Tigers, making Massillon first openly professional team in Ohio. Emphasis shifted there from Pennsylvania.

1904 Ohio had at least eight pro teams. Attempt failed to form league to end cutthroat bidding for players, write rules for all.

1905 Canton Bulldogs turned professional.

1906 Arch-rivals Massillon and Canton played twice, Massillon won both. Because of betting scandal, Canton manager Blondy Wallace left in disgrace, interest in pro football in two cities declined.

1913 Jim Thorpe, former football star for Carlisle Indian School and hero of 1912 Olympics, played season for Pine Village Pros in Indiana.

1915 Canton revived name "Bulldogs." and signed Thorpe for $250 a game.

1916 With Thorpe starring, Canton won 10 straight, most by lopsided scores, was acclaimed pro football champion of world.

1919 George Calhoun, Curly Lambeau organized Green Bay Packers. Indian Packing Company provided equipment, name "Packers." They had 10–1 record against other company teams.

1920 Pro football was in state of confusion, teams were loosely organized, players moved freely among teams, there was no system for recruiting players. A league in which all followed the same rules was needed. Meeting was held among interested teams in August, second meeting was held in Canton and American Professional Football Association, forerunner of National Football League, formed Sept. 17. Teams were from five states—Akron Pros, Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Dayton Triangles, Massillon Tigers from Ohio; Hammond Pros, Muncie Flyers from Indiana; Racine Cardinals, Rock Island Independents, Decatur Staleys, represented by George Halas, from Illinois; Rochester, N.Y., Jeffersons; and "Wisconsin."

Capitalizing on his fame, Thorpe was chosen league president, Stan Cofall of Massillon vice-president. Membership fee of $100 arrived at to give aura of respectability. No team ever paid it. Massillon and Muncie did not field teams. Buffalo All-Americans, Chicago Tigers, Columbus, Ohio, Panhandles, and Detroit Tigers joined league later in year. League operated sporadically, teams played as many non-members as members, either no standings kept or have since been lost. Akron, Buffalo, Canton all claimed championship, hastily-arranged series of games, one of them between Buffalo and Canton at Polo Grounds, New York City, failed to settle issue of championship.

First recorded player deal sale of Bob Nash, tackle and end for Akron, to Buffalo for $300, five percent of gate receipts.

1921 APFA reorganized at Akron, Joe Carr of Panhandles named president, Apr. 30. Carl Storck of Dayton named secretary-treasurer. Carr established league headquarters at Columbus.

Chicago Tigers, beaten by Racine Cardinals in 1920 game for "rights" to Chicago, dropped out, so did Hammond.

J.E. Clair of Acme Packing Company granted franchise for Green Bay Packers, Aug. 27. Cincinnati Celts also joined league.

Thorpe moved from Canton to Cleveland Indians.

A.E. Staley turned Decatur Staleys over to George Halas, who moved them to Cubs Park in Chicago, promising to keep the name "Staleys" one more year.

Five teams that dropped out had records stricken from standings—Evansville, Hammond, Louisville, Minneapolis, and Muncie.

Chicago Staleys claimed league championship with 10–1–1 record. Buffalo, 9–1–2, claimed Chicago included nonleague games in record, but Carr ruled for Staleys.

1922 Packers disciplined for using college players under assumed names, Clair turned franchise back to league, Jan. 28. Curly Lambeau promised to obey rules, used $50 of own money to buy back franchise, June 24. Bad weather, low attendance plagued Packers, merchants raised $2,500, public non-profit corporation set up to operate team with Lambeau as manager, coach.

APFA changed name to National Football League, June 24. Staleys became Chicago Bears.

Thorpe, other Indian players formed Oorang Indians in Marion, Ohio, sponsored by Oorang dog kennels.

1923 Oorang folded with 1–10 record, Thorpe moved to Toledo Maroons. Player-coach Halas of Chicago recovered fumble by Thorpe in game against Oorang, ran 98 yards for touchdown.

1924 Frankford Yellowjackets of Philadelphia awarded franchise, that city entered league for first time. League champion Canton moved to Cleveland to play before larger crowds to meet rising payroll.

1925 Tim Mara and Billy Gibson awarded franchise for New York City for $500. Detroit Panthers, coached by Jimmy Conzelman, Pottsville, Pa., Maroons, Providence R.I., Steam Roller also entered league. New team in Canton took name "Bulldogs."

University of Illinois season ended and Red Grange signed contract to play for Chicago Bears immediately, Nov. 22. Crowd of 38,000 watched Grange and Bears in traditional Thanksgiving game against Cardinals. Barnstorming tour began in which Bears played seven games in 11 days in St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York, then cities in South and West. Crowd of 70,000 watched game against Giants at Polo Grounds, helping assure future of NFL franchise in New York.

Pottsville defeated Chicago Cardinals for what they thought was NFL championship, but week later played "Notre Dame All-Stars" in Philadelphia. Frankford protested, saying "territorial rights" had been impinged upon. Carr upheld protest, cancelled Pottsville franchise, ordered Cardinals to play two more games. They did, won both, were proclaimed NFL champions.

1926 Grange's manager, C.C. Pyle, asked Bears for five-figure salary for Grange, one-third ownership of team. Bears refused, lost Grange. Pyle leased Yankee Stadium in New York City, petitioned for NFL franchise, was refused, started first American Football League. It lasted one season, included Grange's New York Yankees, eight other teams. AFL champion Philadelphia Quakers played postseason game against NFL New York Giants, lost 31–0.

Halas pushed through rule prohibiting any team from signing player whose college class had not graduated, Feb. 6.

NFL membership swelled to 22, frustrating AFL growth. Paddy Driscoll of Cardinals moved to rival Bears. Ole Haugsrud, operator of Duluth, Minn., Eskimos, gained NFL franchise, signed Ernie Nevers of Stanford, giving NFL gate attraction to rival Grange. Thirteen-member Eskimos, "Iron Men of the North," played 28 exhibition or league games, 26 on road.

1928 Grange left football, appeared in movie and on vaudeville circuit. Duluth disbanded, Nevers quit pro football, played baseball, was assistant coach at Stanford.

1929 Chris O'Brien sold Chicago Cardinals to David Jones, July 27. NFL added fourth official, field judge, July 28. Cardinals became first pro team to go to out-of-town training camp, Coldwater, Mich., Aug. 21. Dayton played final season, last of original Ohio teams to leave league.

Grange, Nevers returned to NFL. Nevers scored 40 points for Cardinals against Bears, Nov. 28, six touchdowns rushing, four extra points. Grange returned to Bears.

Packers signed back Johnny Blood (McNally), tackle Cal Hubbard, guard Mike Michalske, and won first NFL championship.

1930 Portsmouth, Ohio, Spartans, joined NFL. Defunct Dayton franchise bought by John Dwyer, became Brooklyn Dodgers. Bears, Cardinals played exhibition for unemployment relief funds, indoors at Chicago Stadium, layer of dirt covering arena floor. New York Giants, "Notre Dame All-Stars" coached by Knute Rockne, played charity exhibition before 55,000 at Polo Grounds.

Halas retired as player, resigned as coach of Bears in favor of Ralph Jones.

Packers won second straight NFL championship.

1931 Pro football shrank to 10 teams. Carr fined Bears, Packers, Portsmouth $1,000 each for using players whose college classes had not graduated, July 11.

Playing career of Al Nesser, last of six brothers to play in NFL, ended when Cleveland Indians disbanded.

Green Bay won third straight NFL championship.

1932 George P. Marshall, Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, M. Dorland Doyle awarded franchise for Boston, July 9. Named team "Braves" after baseball team using same park.

NFL membership dropped to eight, lowest in history. First playoff in NFL history arranged between Bears and Spartans. Moved indoors to Chicago Stadium because of blizzard conditions in city. Arena allowed only 80-yard field that came right to walls. For safety, goal posts moved from end to goal lines, inbounds lines or hashmarks drawn 10 yards from side lines for ball to be put in play. Bears won 9–0, Dec. 18, scoring touchdown disputed by Spartans who claimed Bronko Nagurski threw jump pass to Red Grange from point less than five yards behind line of scrimmage, violating existing passing rule.

1933 NFL made significant changes in rules of football first time. Innovations of 1932 indoor playoffs—inbounds lines or hashmarks 10 yards from sidelines, goal posts on goal lines—became rules, Feb. 25. Following resolution by George P. Marshall, NFL divided into two five-team divisions, winners to meet in annual championship playoff, July, 8.

Franchise was awarded to Art Rooney and A. McCool for Pittsburgh, July 8; team was named "Pirates." Inactive Frankford franchise declared forfeited, Philadelphia franchise awarded to Bert Bell, Lud Wray, July 9; named team "Eagles." Boston changed name to "Redskins." George Halas bought out Ed (Dutch) Sternaman, became sole owner of Chicago Bears, reinstated himself as head coach. David Jones sold Cardinals to Charles W. Bidwill. Cincinnati Reds joined league.

Eastern Division champion New York Giants met Western Division champion Bears at Wrigley Field in first NFL championship game, Dec. 17. Bears won 23–21.

1934 Bears played scoreless tie against collegians in first Chicago All-Star Game before 79,432 at Soldier Field, Aug. 31.

NFL legalized forward passes anywhere behind line of scrimmage.

G. A. (Dick) Richards purchased Portsmouth Spartans, moved them to Detroit, June 30; they took name "Lions." Cincinnati Reds franchise moved during season, became St. Louis Gunners.

Player waiver rule adopted, Dec. 10.

Grange retired from football.

1935 Bell of Philadelphia proposed, NFL adopted annual draft of college players, to begin in 1936, with team finishing last in standings having first choice each round of draft, May 19.

Cincinnati Reds-St. Louis Gunners franchise died.

Inbounds lines or hashmarks moved nearer center of field, 15 yards from sidelines.

1936 No franchise shifts for first time since formation of NFL and for first time all teams played same number of games.

Last-place previous year, Philadelphia Eagles made Jay Berwanger, University of Chicago back, first choice in first NFL draft, Feb. 8. Eagles later traded negotiation rights to him to Bears. He never played pro football.

Rival league was formed, became second to call itself American Football League. It included six teams, Boston Shamrocks won championship.

1937 Cleveland returned to NFL. Homer Marshman was granted a franchise, Feb. 12; he named new team "Rams." Marshall moved Redskins to Washington, Feb. 13.

Los Angeles Bulldogs had 8–0 record in American Football League; six-team league folded.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

Tampa Stadium, Tampa, Florida — January 22, 1984

Attendance: 72,920

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 38, WASHINGTON 9—The Los Angeles Raiders dominated the Washington Redskins from the beginning in Super Bowl XVIII and achieved the most lopsided victory in Super Bowl history, surpassing Green Bay's 35-10 win over Kansas City in Super Bowl I. The Raiders took a 7-0 lead 4:52 into the game when Derrick Jensen blocked a Jeff Hayes punt and recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. With 9:14 remaining in the first half, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Cliff Branch to complete a three-play, 65-yard drive. Washington cut the Raiders' lead to 14-3 on a 24-yard field goal by Mark Moseley. With seven seconds left in the first half, Raiders linebacker Jack Squirek intercepted a Joe Theismann pass at the Redskins' 5-yard line and ran it in for a touchdown to give Los Angeles a 21-3 halftime lead. In the third period, running back Marcus Allen, who rushed for a Super Bowl record 191 yards on 20 carries, increased the Raiders' lead to 35-3 on touchdown runs of 5 and 74 yards, the latter erasing the previous Super Bowl record of 58 yards set by Baltimore's Tom Matte in Game III. Allen was named the game's most valuable player. The victory over Washington raised Raiders coach Tom Flores' playoff record to 8-1, including a 27-10 win against Philadelphia in Super Bowl XV. The 38 points scored by the Raiders was the highest point total by a Super Bowl team. The previous high was 35 points by Green Bay in Game I.

SUPER BOWL XVII

Rose Bowl, Pasadena, California — January 30, 1983
Attendance: 103,667

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17—Fullback John Riggins' Super Bowl record 166 yards on 38 carries sparked Washington to a 27-17 victory over AFC champion Miami. It was Riggins' fourth straight 100-yard rushing game during the playoffs, also a record. The win marked Washington's first NFL title since 1942, and was only the second time in Super Bowl history NFC teams scored consecutive wins (Green Bay did it in Super Bowls I and II and San Francisco won Super Bowl XVI). The Redskins, under second-year head coach Joe Gibbs, presented a balanced offense that accounted for 400 total yards (a Super Bowl record 276 yards rushing and 124 passing), second in Super Bowl history to 429 yards by Oakland in Super Bowl XI. The Dolphins built a 17-10 halftime lead on a 76-yard touchdown pass from quarterback David Woodley to wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo 6:49 into the first period, a 20-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann with 6:00 left in the half, and a Super Bowl record 98-yard kickoff return by Fulton Walker with 1:38 remaining. Washington had tied the score at 10-10 with 1:51 left on a four-yard touchdown pass from Joe Theismann to wide receiver Alvin Garrett. Mark Moseley started the Redskins' scoring with a 31-yard field goal late in the first period, and added a 20-yard field goal midway through the third period to cut the Dolphins' lead to 17-13. Riggins, who was voted the game's most valuable player, gave Washington its first lead of the game with 10:01 left when he ran 43 yards off left tackle for a touchdown on a fourth-and-one situation. Wide receiver Charlie Brown caught a six-yard scoring pass from Theismann with 1:55 left to complete the scoring. The Dolphins managed only 176 yards (142 in first half). Theismann completed 15 of 23 for 143 yards, two touchdowns, and had two interceptions. For Miami, Woodley was 4 of 14 for 97 yards, with one touchdown and one interception. Don Strock was 0 for 3 in relief.

SAN FRANCISO 26, CINCINNATI 21—Ray Wersching's Super Bowl record-tying four field goals and Joe Montana's controlled passing helped lift the San Francisco 49ers to their first NFL championship with a 26-21 victory over Cincinnati. The 49ers built a game-record 20-0 halftime lead via Montana's one-yard touchdown run, which capped an 11-play, 68-yard drive; fullback Earl Cooper's 11-yard scoring pass from Montana, which climaxed a Super Bowl record 92-yard drive on 12 plays; and Wersching's 22- and 26-yard field goals. The Bengals rebounded in the second half, closing the gap to 20-14 on quarterback Ken Anderson's five-yard run and Dan Ross's four-yard catch from Anderson, who established Super Bowl passing records for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5 percent on 25 of 34). Wersching added early fourth-period field goals of 40 and 23 yards to increase the 49ers' lead to 26-14. The Bengals managed to score on an Anderson-to-Ross three-yard pass with only 16 seconds remaining. Ross set a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions for 104 yards. Montana, the game's most valuable player, completed 14 of 22 passes for 157 yards. Cincinnati compiled 356 yards to San Francisco's 275, which marked the first time in Super Bowl history that the team that gained the most yards from scrimmage lost the game.

OAKLAND 27, PHILADELPHIA 10—Jim Plunkett threw three touchdown passes, including an 80-yarder to Kenny King, as the Raiders became the first wild card team to win the Super Bowl. Plunkett's touchdown bomb to King—the longest play in Super Bowl history—gave Oakland a decisive 14-0 lead with nine seconds left in the first period. Linebacker Rod Martin had set up Oakland's first touchdown, a two-yard reception by Cliff Branch, with a 16-yard interception return to the Eagles' 32 yard line. The Eagles never recovered from that early deficit, managing only a Tony Franklin field goal (30 yards) and an eight-yard touchdown pass from Ron Jaworski to Keith Krepfle the rest of the game. Plunkett, who became a starter in the sixth game of the season, completed 13 of 21 for 261 yards and was named the game's most valuable player. Oakland won 9 of 11 games with Plunkett starting, but that was good enough only for second place in the AFC West, although they tied division winner San Diego with an 11-5 record. The Raiders, who had previously won Super Bowl XI over Minnesota, had to win three playoff games to get to the championship game. Oakland defeated Houston 27-7 at home followed by road victories over Cleveland, 14-12 and San Diego, 34-27. Oakland's Mark van Eeghen was the game's leading rusher with 80 yards on 19 carries. Philadelphia's Wilbert Montgomery led all receivers with six receptions for 91 yards. Branch had five for 67 and Harold Carmichael of Philadelphia five for 83. Martin finished the game with three interceptions, a Super Bowl record.

PITTSBURGH 31, LOS ANGELES 19—Terry Bradshaw completed 14 of 21 passes for 309 yards and set two passing records as the Steelers became the first team to win four Super Bowls. Despite three interceptions by the Rams, Bradshaw kept his poise and brought the Steelers from behind twice in the second half. Trailing 13-10 at halftime, Pittsburgh went ahead 17-13 when Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann with a 47-yard touchdown pass after 2:48 of the third quarter. On the Rams' next possession Vince Ferragamo, who completed 15 of 25 passes for 212 yards, responded with a 50-yard pass to Billy Waddy that moved Los Angeles from its own 26 to the Steelers' 24. On the following play, Lawrence McCutcheon connected with Ron Smith on a halfback option pass that gave the Rams a 19-17 lead. On Pittsburgh's initial possession of the final period, Bradshaw lofted a 73-yard scoring pass to John Stallworth to put the Steelers in front to stay, 24-19. Franco Harris scored on a one-yard run later in the quarter to seal the verdict. A 45-yard pass from Bradshaw to Stallworth was the key play in the drive to Harris's score. Bradshaw, the game's most valuable player for the second straight year, set career Super Bowl records for most touchdown passes (nine) and most passing yards (932). Larry Anderson gave the Steelers excellent field position throughout the game with five kickoff returns for a record 162 yards.

PITTSBURGH 35, DALLAS 31—Terry Bradshaw threw a record four touchdown passes to lead the Steelers to victory. The Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls, mostly because of Bradshaw's accurate arm. Bradshaw, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 17 of 30 passes for 318 yards, a personal high. Three of those passes went for touchdowns—two to John Stallworth and the third, with 26 seconds remaining in the second period, to Rocky Bleier. The Cowboys scored twice before intermission on Roger Staubach's 39-yard pass to Tony Hill and a 37-yard run by linebacker Mike Hegman, who stole the ball from Bradshaw. The Steelers broke open the contest with two touchdowns in a span of 19 seconds midway through the final period. Franco Harris rambled 22 yards up the middle to give the Steelers a 28-17 lead with 7:10 left. Pittsburgh got the ball right back when Randy White fumbled the kickoff and Dennis Winston recovered for the Steelers. On first down, Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann with an 18-yard scoring pass to boost the Steelers' lead to 35-17 with 6:51 to play. The Cowboys refused to let the Steelers run away with the contest. Staubach connected with Billy Joe DuPree on an eight-yard scoring pass with 2:23 left. Then the Cowboys recovered an onside kick and Staubach took them in for another score, passing four yards to Butch Johnson with 22 seconds remaining. Bleier recovered another onside kick with 17 seconds left to seal the victory for the Steelers.

Dallas converted two interceptions into 10 points and Efren Herrera added a 35-yard field goal for a 13-0 halftime advantage. In the third period Craig Morton engineered a drive to the Cowboys' 30 and Jim Turner's 47-yard field goal made the score 13-3. After an exchange of punts, Butch Johnson made a spectacular diving catch in the end zone to complete a 45-yard pass from Roger Staubach and put the Cowboys ahead 20-3. Following Rick Upchurch's 67-yard kickoff return, Norris Weese guided the Broncos to a touchdown to cut the Dallas lead to 20-10. Dallas clinched the victory when running back Robert Newhouse threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Golden Richards with 7:04 remaining in the game. It was the first pass thrown by Newhouse since 1975. OAKLAND 32, MINNESOTA 14—The Raiders won their first NFL championship before a record Super Bowl crowd plus 81 million television viewers, the largest audience ever to watch a sporting event. The Raiders gained a record-breaking 429 yards, including running back Clarence Davis's 137 yards rushing, and wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff made four key receptions, which earned him the game's most valuable player trophy. Oakland scored on three successive possessions in the second quarter to build a 16-0 halftime lead. Errol Mann's 24-yard field goal opened the scoring, then the AFC champions put together drives of 64 and 35 yards, scoring on a one-yard pass from Ken Stabler to Dave Casper and a one-yard run by Pete Banaszak. The Raiders increased their lead to 19-0 on a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter, but Minnesota responded with a 12-play, 58-yard drive late in the period, with Fran Tarkenton passing eight yards to wide receiver Sammy White to cut the deficit to 19-7. Two fourth quarter interceptions clinched the title for the Raiders. One set up Banaszak's second touchdown run, the other resulted in cornerback Willie Brown's Super Bowl record 75-yard interception return.

PITTSBURGH 21, DALLAS 17—The Steelers won the Super Bowl for the second year in a row on Terry Bradshaw's 64-yard touchdown pass to Lynn Swann and an aggressive defense that snuffed out a late rally by the Cowboys with an end zone interception on the final play of the game. In the fourth quarter Pittsburgh ran on fourth down and gave up the ball on the Cowboys' 39 with 1:22 to play. Staubach ran and passed for two first downs but his last desperation pass was picked off by Glen Edwards. Dallas's scoring was the result of two touchdown passes by Staubach, one to Drew Pearson for 29 yards and the other to Percy Howard for 34 yards. Toni Fritsch had a 36-yard field goal. The Steelers scored on two touchdown passes by Bradshaw, one to Randy Grossman for seven yards and the long bomb to Swann. Roy Gerela had 36- and 18-yard field goals. PITTSBURGH 16, MINNESOTA 6—AFC champion Pittsburgh, in its initial Super Bowl appearance, and NFC champion Minnesota, making a third bid for its first Super Bowl title, struggled through a first half in which the only score was produced by the Steelers' defense when Dwight White downed Vikings' quarterback Fran Tarkenton in the end zone for a safety 7:49 into the second period. The Steelers forced another break and took advantage on the second half kickoff when Minnesota's Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh on the Vikings' 30. After Rocky Bleier failed to gain on first down, Franco Harris carried three consecutive times for 24 yards, a loss of 3, and a 12-yard touchdown and a 9-0 lead. Though its offense was completely stymied by Pittsburgh's defense, Minnesota managed to move into a threatening position after 4:27 of the final period when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt and Terry Brown recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Fred Cox's kick failed and the Steelers led 9-6. Pittsburgh wasted no time putting the victory away. The Steelers took the ensuing kickoff and marched 66 yards in 11 plays, climaxed by Terry Bradshaw's four-yard scoring pass to Larry Brown with 3:31 left. Pittsburgh's defense permitted Minnesota only 119 yards total offense, including a Super Bowl low of 17 yards rushing. The Steelers, meanwhile, gained 333 yards, including Harris's record 158 yards on 34 carries.

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7—The defending NFL champion Dolphins, representing the AFC for the third straight year, scored the first two times they had possession on marches of 62 and 56 yards in the first period while the Miami defense limited the Vikings to only seven plays. Larry Csonka climaxed the initial 10-play drive with a five-yard touchdown bolt through right guard after 5:27 had elapsed. Four plays later, Miami began another 10-play scoring drive, which ended with Jim Kiick bursting one yard through the middle for another touchdown after 13:38 of the period. Garo Yepremian added a 28-yard field goal midway in the second period for a 17-0 Miami lead. Minnesota then drove from its 20 to a second-and-two situation on the Miami 7 yard line with 1:18 left in the half. But on two plays, Miami limited Oscar Reed to one yard. On fourth-and-one from the 6, Reed went over right tackle, but Dolphins middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti jarred the ball loose and Jake Scott recovered for Miami to halt the Minnesota threat. The Vikings were unable to muster enough offense in the second half to threaten the Dolphins. Csonka rushed 33 times for a Super Bowl record 145 yards. Bob Griese of Miami completed six of seven passes for 73 yards.

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7—The Dolphins played virtually perfect football in the first half as their defense permitted the Redskins to cross midfield only once and their offense turned good field position into two touchdowns. On its third possession, Miami opened its first scoring drive from the Dolphins' 37 yard line. An 18-yard pass from Bob Griese to Paul Warfield preceded by three plays Griese's 28-yard touchdown pass to Howard Twilley. After Washington moved from its 17 to the Miami 48 with two minutes remaining in the first half, Dolphins linebacker Nick Buoniconti intercepted a Billy Kilmer pass at the Miami 41 and returned it to the Washington 27. Jim Kiick ran for three yards, Larry Csonka for three, Griese passed to Jim Mandich for 19, and Kiick gained one to the 1 yard line. With 18 seconds left until intermission, Kiick scored from the 1. Washington's only touchdown came with 7:07 left in the game and resulted from a misplayed field goal attempt and fumble by Garo Yepremian, with the

After Dallas received the second half kickoff, Duane Thomas led a 71-yard march in eight plays for a 17-3 margin. Howley intercepted Bob Griese's pass at the 50 and returned it to the Miami 9 early in the fourth period, and three plays later Roger Staubach passed seven yards to Mike Ditka for the final touchdown. BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—A 32-yard field goal by first-year kicker Jim O'Brien brought the Baltimore Colts a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in the final five seconds of Super Bowl V. The game between the champions of the AFC and NFC was played on artificial turf for the first time. Dallas led 13-6 at the half but interceptions by Rick Volk and Mike Curtis set up a Baltimore touchdown and O'Brien's decisive kick in the fourth period. Earl Morrall relieved an injured Johnny Unitas late in the first half, although Unitas completed the Colts' only scoring pass. It caromed off receiver Eddie Hinton's finger tips, off Dallas defensive back Mel Renfro, and finally settled into the grasp of John Mackey, who went 45 yards to score on a 75-yard play.

Dawson, the fourth consecutive quarterback to be chosen the Super Bowl's top player, called an almost flawless game, completing 12 of 17 passes and hitting Otis Taylor on a 46-yard play for the final Chiefs touchdown. The Kansas City defense limited Minnesota's strong rushing game to 67 yards and made three interceptions and two fumble recoveries. The crowd of 80,562 set a Super Bowl record, as did the gross receipts of $3,817,872.69.

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—Jets quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost only once in 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jets' defense had intercepted Colts quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. Johnny Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

GREEN BAY 33, OAKLAND 14—Green Bay, after winning its third consecutive NFL championship, won the Super Bowl title for the second straight year 33-14 over the AFL champion Raiders in a game that drew the first $3 million dollar gate in football history. Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead. Don Chandler kicked four field goals and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley capped the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard run with an interception. The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL championships, and two Super Bowls.

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10—The Green Bay Packers opened the Super Bowl series by defeating Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee, and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood. Green Bay broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 40-yard return of an interception to the Chiefs' 5 yard line. McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler after having caught only three passes all season, caught seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores. The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter, the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Len Dawson to Curtis McClinton. Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns and was chosen the most valuable player. The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500—the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

WASHINGTON 24, SAN FRANCISCO 21 — The Washington Redskins gained their second consecutive NFC title and Super Bowl trip by defeating NFC West champion San Francisco 24-21. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins drove 64 yards in five plays to take a 7-0 lead on running back John Riggins' four-yard run. Riggins, who carried 36 times for 123 yards (his sixth straight 100-yard playoff game), raised Washington's lead to 14-0 on a one-yard run with 3:45 remaining in the third period. After the 49ers punted, the Redskins took over on their own 20-yard line. Following a 10-yard gain by Riggins, quarterback Joe Theismann completed a 70-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Charlie Brown with 1:02 remaining in the third period. The 49ers scored in the fourth period by completing a nine-play, 79-yard touchdown drive with a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Joe Montana to wide receiver Mike Wilson. With 9:58 remaining, Montana completed a 76-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Freddie Solomon to narrow the Redskins' lead to 21-14. After holding Washington on four downs, San Francisco tied the game on a four-play, 53-yard drive ending in a 12-yard touchdown catch by Wilson from Montana. The Redskins got the ball back with 6:52 remaining in the game on their own 14-yard line. They drove to the 49ers' 8-yard line in 13 plays and Mark Moseley kicked the decisive 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds left.

On the NFC's first possession of the second half, Pat Haden put together the first touchdown drive after Eddie Brown returned Ray Guy's punt to the AFC 46 yard line. AFC 24, NFC 14—O.J. Simpson's three-yard touchdown burst at 7:03 of the first quarter gave the AFC a lead it would not surrender, the victory breaking a two-game NFC win streak and giving the American Conference stars a 4-3 series lead. The AFC took a 17-7 lead midway through the second period on the first of two Ken Anderson touchdown passes, a 12-yarder to Charlie Joiner. But the NFC mounted a 73-yard scoring drive capped by Lawrence McCutcheon's one-yard touchdown plunge to pull within three of the AFC, 17-14, at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, player of the game Mel Blount thwarted a possible NFC score when he intercepted Jim Hart's pass in the end zone. Less than three minutes later, Blount again picked off a Hart pass, returning it 16 yards to the NFC 27. That set up Anderson's 27-yard touchdown strike to Cliff Branch for the final score.

NFL Digest of Rules

This Digest of Rules of the National Football League has been prepared to aid players, fans, and members of the press, radio, and television media in their understanding of the game.

It is not meant to be a substitute for the official rule book. In any case of conflict between these explanations and the official rules, the rules always have precedence.

In order to make it easier to coordinate the information in this digest the topics discussed generally follow the order of the rule book.

Officials' Jurisdictions, Positions, and Duties

Referee—General oversight and control of game. Gives signals for all fouls and is final authority for rule interpretations. Takes a position in backfield 10 to 12 yards behind line of scrimmage, favors right side (if quarterback is right-handed passer). Determines legality of snap, observes deep back(s) for legal motion. On running play, observes quarterback during and after handoff, remains with him until action has cleared away, then proceeds downfield, checking on runner and contact behind him. When runner is downed, Referee determines forward progress from wing official and if necessary, adjusts final position of ball.

On pass plays, drops back as quarterback begins to fade back, picks up legality of blocks by near linemen. Changes to complete concentration on quarterback as defenders approach. Primarily responsible to rule on possible roughing action on passer and if ball becomes loose, rules whether ball is free on a fumble or dead on an incomplete pass.

During kicking situations, Referee has primary responsibility to rule on kicker's actions and whether or not any subsequent contact by a defender is legal.

Umpire—Primary responsibility to rule on players' equipment, as well as their conduct and actions on scrimmage line. Lines up approximately four to five yards downfield, varying position from in front of weakside tackle to strongside guard. Looks for possible false start by offensive linemen. Observes legality of contact by both offensive linemen while blocking and by defensive players while they attempt to ward off blockers. Is prepared to call rule infractions if they occur on offense or defense. Moves forward to line of scrimmage when pass play develops in order to insure that interior linemen do not move illegally downfield. If offensive linemen indicate screen pass is to be attempted, Umpire shifts his attention toward screen side, picks up potential receiver in order to insure that he will legally be permitted to run his pattern and continues to rule on action of blockers. Umpire is to assist in ruling on incomplete or trapped passes when ball is thrown overhead or short.

Head Linesman—Primarily responsible for ruling on offside, encroachment, and actions pertaining to scrimmage line prior to or at snap. Keys on closest setback on his side of the field. On pass plays, Linesman is responsible to clear this receiver approximately seven yards downfield as he moves to a point five yards beyond the line. Linesman's secondary responsibility is to rule on any illegal action taken by defenders on any delay receiver moving downfield. Has full responsibility for ruling on sideline plays on his side, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds. Together with Referee, Linesman is responsible for keeping track of number of downs and is in charge of mechanics of his chain crew in connection with its duties.

Linesman must be prepared to assist in determining forward progress by a runner on play directed toward middle or into his side zone. He, in turn, is to signal Referee or Umpire what forward point ball has reached. Linesman is also responsible to rule on legality of action involving any receiver who approaches his side zone. He is to call pass interference when the infraction occurs and is to rule on legality of blockers and defenders on plays involving ball carriers, whether it is entirely a running play, a combination pass and run, or a play involving a kick.

Line Judge—Straddles line of scrimmage on side of field opposite Linesman. Keeps time of game as a backup for clock operator. Along with Linesman is responsible for offside, encroachment, and actions pertaining to scrimmage line prior to or at snap. Line Judge keys on closest setback on his side of field. Line Judge is to observe his receiver until he moves at least seven yards downfield. He then moves toward backfield side, being especially alert to rule on any back in motion and on flight of ball when pass is made (he must rule whether forward or backward). Line Judge has primary responsibility to rule whether or not passer is behind or beyond line of scrimmage when pass is made. He also assists in observing actions by blockers and defenders who are on his side of field. After pass is thrown, Line Judge directs attention toward activities that occur in back of Umpire. During punting situations, Line Judge remains at line of scrimmage to be sure that only the end men move downfield until kick has been made. He also rules whether or not the kick crossed line and then observes action by members of the kicking team who are moving downfield to cover the kick.

Back Judge—Operates on same side of field as Line Judge, 17 yards deep. Keys on wide receiver on his side. Concentrates on path of end or back, observing legality of his potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him. Has primary responsibility to make decisions involving sideline on his side of field, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds.

Back Judge makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; rules on plays involving pass receiver, including legality of catch or pass interference; assists in covering actions of runner, including blocks by teammates and that of defenders; calls clipping on punt returns; and, together with Field Judge, rules whether or not field goal attempts are successful.

Side Judge—Operates on same side of field as Linesman, 17 yards deep. Keys on wide receiver on his side. Concentrates on path of end or back, observing legality of his potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him. Has primary responsibility to make decisions involving sideline on his side of field, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds.

Side Judge makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; rules on plays involving pass receiver, including legality of catch or pass interference; assists in covering actions of runner, including blocks by teammates and that of defenders; and calls clipping on punt returns.

Field Judge—Takes a position 25 yards downfield. In general, favors the tight end's side of field. Keys on tight end, concentrates on his path and observes legality of tight end's potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him.

Field Judge times interval between plays on 30-second clock plus intermission between two periods of each half; makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; is responsible to rule on plays involving end line; calls pass interference, fair catch infractions, and clipping on kick returns; and, together with Back Judge, rules whether or not field goals and conversions are successful.

2. The field is rimmed by a white border, a minimum six feet wide, along the sidelines. All of this is out of bounds.
3. The hashmarks (inbound lines) are 70 feet, 9 inches from each sideline.
4. Goal posts must be single-standard type, offset from the end line and painted bright gold. The goal posts must be 18 feet, 6 inches wide and the top face of the crossbar must be 10 feet above the ground. Vertical posts extend at least 30 feet above the crossbar. A ribbon 4 inches by 42 inches long is to be attached to the top of each post. The actual goal is the plane extending indefinitely above the crossbar and between the outer edges of the posts.
5. The field is 360 feet long and 160 feet wide. The end zones are 30 feet deep. The line used in try-for-point plays is two yards out from the goal line.
6. Chain crew members and ball boys must be uniformly identifiable.
7. All clubs must use standardized sideline markers. Pylons must be used for goal line and end line markings.
8. End zone markings and club identification at 50 yard line must be approved by the Commissioner to avoid any confusion as to delineation of goal lines, sidelines, and end lines.

Ball

1. The home club must have 24 balls available for testing by the Referee one hour before game time. In case of bad weather, a playable ball is to be substituted on request of the offensive team captain.

Coin Toss

1. The toss of coin will take place within three minutes of kickoff in center of field. The toss will be called by the visiting captain. The winner may choose one of two privileges and the loser gets the other:
   (a) Receive or kick
   (b) Goal his team will defend
2. Immediately prior to the start of the second half, the captains of both teams must inform the officials of their respective choices. The loser of the original coin toss gets first choice.

Timing

1. The stadium clock is official. In case it stops or is operating incorrectly, the Line Judge takes over the official timing on the field.
2. Each period is 15 minutes. The intermission between the periods is two minutes. Halftime is 15 minutes, unless otherwise specified.
3. On charged team time outs, the Field Judge starts watch and blows whistle after 1 minute 30 seconds. However, Referee may allow two minutes for injured player and three minutes for equipment repair.
4. Each team is allowed three time outs each half.
5. Offensive team has 30 seconds to put the ball in play. The time is displayed on two 30-second clocks, which are visible to the players, officials, and fans. Field Judge is to call a delay of game penalty (five yards) when the time limit is exceeded. In case 30-second clocks are not operating, Field Judge takes over the official timing on the field.
6. Clock will start running when ball is snapped following all changes of team possession.

Sudden Death

1. The sudden death system of determining the winner shall prevail when score is tied at the end of the regulation playing time of all NFL games. The team scoring first during overtime play shall be the winner and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Referee for a palpably unfair act.
2. At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss.
3. Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods or until there is a score. There is a two-minute intermission between subsequent periods. The teams change goals at the start of each period. Each team has three time outs and general provisions for play in the last two-minutes of a half shall prevail. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
   Exception: In preseason and regular season games there shall be a maximum of 15 minutes of sudden death with two time outs instead of three. General provisions for play in the last two minutes of a half will be in force.

Timing in Final Two Minutes of Each Half

1. On kickoff, clock does not start until the ball has been legally touched by player of either team in the field of play. (In all other cases, clock starts with kickoff.)

2. A team cannot "buy" an excess time out for a penalty. However, a fourth time out is allowed without penalty for an injured player, who must be removed immediately. A fifth time out or more is allowed for an injury and a five-yard penalty is assessed if the clock was running. Additionally, if the clock was running and the score is tied or the team in possession is losing, the ball cannot be put in play for at least 10 seconds on the fourth or more time out. The half or game can end while those 10 seconds are run off on the clock.
3. If the defensive team is behind in the score and commits a foul when it has no time outs left in the final 30 seconds of either half, the offensive team can decline the penalty for the foul and have the time on the clock expire.

Try-for-Point

1. After a touchdown, the scoring team is allowed a try-for-point during one scrimmage down. The ball may be spotted anywhere between the inbounds lines, two or more yards from the goal line. The successful conversion counts one point, whether by run, kick, or pass.
2. The defensive team never can score on a try-for-point. As soon as defense gets possession, or kick is blocked, ball is dead.
3. Any distance penalty for fouls committed by the defense that prevent the try from being attempted can be enforced on the succeeding kickoff. Any foul committed on a successful try will result in a distance penalty being assessed on the ensuing kickoff.

Players-Substitutions

1. Each team is permitted 11 men on the field at the snap.
2. Unlimited substitution is permitted. However, players may enter the field only when the ball is dead. Players who have been substituted for are not permitted to linger on the field. Such lingering will be interpreted as unsportsmanlike conduct.
3. Players leaving the game must be out of bounds on their own side, clearing the field between the end lines, before a snap or free kick. If player crosses end line leaving field, it is delay of game (five-yard penalty).

Kickoff

1. The kickoff shall be from the kicking team's 35 yard line at the start of each half and after a field goal and try-for-point. A kickoff is one type of free kick.
2. Either a one-, two-, or three-inch tee may be used (no tee permitted for field goal or try-for-point plays). The ball is put in play by a placekick or dropkick.
3. If kickoff clears the opponent's goal posts it is not a field goal.
4. A kickoff is illegal unless it travels 10 yards OR is touched by the receiving team. Once the ball is touched by the receiving team it is a free ball. Receivers may recover and advance. Kicking team may recover but NOT advance UNLESS receiver had possession and lost the ball.
5. When a kickoff goes out of bounds between the goal lines without being touched by the receiving team, it must be kicked again. There is a five-yard penalty for a short kick or an out-of-bounds kick.
6. If the kicking team either illegally kicks off out of bounds or is guilty of a short free kick on two or more consecutive kickoffs, receiving team shall have an option of either re-kick with a five-yard penalty, or they may take possession of the ball at the dead-ball spot, out-of-bounds spot, or spot of illegal touch.
7. When a kickoff goes out of bounds between the goal lines and is touched last by receiving team, it is receiver's ball at out-of-bounds spot.

Free Kick

1. In addition to a kickoff, the other free kicks are a kick after a safety and a kick after a fair catch. In both cases, a dropkick, placekick, or punt may be used (a punt may not be used on a kickoff.)
2. On free kick after a fair catch, captain of receiving team has the option to put ball in play by punt, dropkick, or placekick without a tee, or by snap. If the placekick or dropkick goes between the uprights a field goal is scored.
3. On a free kick after a safety, the team scored upon puts ball in play by a punt, dropkick, or placekick without tee. No score can be made on a free kick following a safety, even if a series of penalties places team in position. (A field goal can be scored only on a play from scrimmage or a free kick after a fair catch.)

Field Goal

1. All field goals attempted and missed from scrimmage line beyond the 20 yard line will result in the defensive team taking possession of the ball at the scrimmage line. On any field goal attempted and missed from scrimmage line inside the 20 yard line, ball will revert to defensive team at the 20 yard line.

Safety

1. The important factor in a safety is impetus. Two points are scored for the opposing team when the ball is dead on or behind a team's own goal line if the impetus came from a player on that team.

Examples of Safety:

(a) Blocked punt goes out of kicking team's end zone. Impetus was provided by punting team. The block only changes direction of ball, not impetus.
(b) Ball carrier retreats from field of play into his own end zone and is downed. Ball carrier provides impetus.
(c) Offensive team commits a foul and spot of enforcement is behind its own goal line.
(d) Player on receiving team muffs punt and, trying to get ball, forces or illegally kicks it into end zone where he or a teammate recovers. He has given new impetus to the ball.

Examples of Non-Safety:

(a) Player intercepts a pass inside his own 5 yard line and his momentum carries him into his own end zone. Ball is put in play at spot of interception.
(b) Player intercepts a pass in his own end zone and is downed. Impetus came from passing team, not from defense. (Touchback)
(c) Player passes from behind his own goal line. Opponent bats down ball in end zone. (Incomplete pass)

Measuring

1. The forward point of the ball is used when measuring.

Position of Players at Snap

1. Offensive team must have at least seven players on line.
2. Offensive players, not on line, must be at least one yard back at snap. (Exception: player who takes snap.)
3. No interior lineman may move after taking or simulating a three-point stance.
4. No player of either team may invade neutral zone before snap.
5. No player of offensive team may charge or move, after assuming set position, in such manner as to lead defense to believe snap has started.
6. If a player changes his eligibility, the Referee must alert the defensive captain after player has reported to him.
7. All players of offensive team must be stationary at snap, except one back who may be in motion parallel to scrimmage line or backward (not forward).
8. After a shift or huddle all players on offensive team must come to an absolute stop for at least one second with no movement of hands, feet, head, or swaying of body.
9. Linemen may lock legs only with the snapper.
10. Quarterbacks can be called for a false start penalty (five yards) if their actions are judged to be an obvious attempt to draw an opponent offside.

Use of Hands, Arms, and Body

1. No player on offense may assist a runner except by blocking for him. There shall be no interlocking interference.
2. A runner may ward off opponents with his hands and arms but no other player on offense may use hands or arms to obstruct an opponent by grasping with hands, pushing, or encircling any part of his body during a block.
3. Pass blocking is the obstruction of an opponent by use of that part of the body above the knees. During a legal block, hands (open or closed) must be inside the blocker's elbows and can be thrust forward to contact an opponent as long as the contact is inside the frame. Hands cannot be thrust forward above the frame to contact an opponent on the neck, face, or head. (Note: The frame is defined as that part of the opponent's body below the neck that is presented to the blocker.) Blocker cannot use his hands or arms to push from behind, hang onto, or encircle an opponent in a manner that restricts his movements as the play develops. By use of up and down action of arm(s), the blocker is permitted to ward off the opponent's attempt to grasp his jersey or arm(s) and prevent legal contact to the head.
4. Run blocking is an aggressive action by a blocker to obstruct an opponent from the ball carrier. During a legal block, contact can be made with the head, shoulders, hands, and/or outer surface of the forearm, or any other part of the body. Hands with extended arms can be thrust forward to contact an opponent as long as the contact is inside the frame and inside the pocket area. [See Pocket Area (Run) Definitions, page 314.] As the play develops, a blocker is permitted to work for and maintain position on an opponent as long as he does not push from behind or clip (outside legal clip zone). A blocker who makes contact with extended arms within the pocket area may maintain such contact outside of the pocket area as long as the action is continuous. A blocker cannot make initial contact with extended arms outside the pocket area. A blocker lined up more than 2 yards outside the tackle is subject, also, to the crackback rule.
5. A defensive player may not tackle or hold an opponent other than a runner. Otherwise, he may use his hands, arms, or body only:
   (a) To defend or protect himself against an obstructing opponent.
   Exception: An eligible receiver is considered to be an obstructing opponent ONLY to a point five yards beyond the line of scrimmage unless the player who receives the snap clearly demonstrates no further intention to pass the ball. Within this five-yard zone, a defensive player may make contact with an eligible receiver that may be maintained as long as it is continuous and unbroken. The defensive player cannot use his hands or arms to push from behind, hang onto, or encircle an eligible receiver in a manner that restricts movement as the play develops. Beyond this five-yard limitation, a defender may use his hands or arms ONLY to defend or protect himself against impending contact caused by a receiver. In such reaction, the defender may not contact a receiver who attempts to take a path to evade him.
   (b) To push or pull opponent out of the way on line of scrimmage.
   (c) In actual attempt to get at or tackle runner.
   (d) To push or pull opponent out of the way in a legal attempt to recover a loose ball.
   (e) During a legal block on an opponent who is not an eligible pass receiver.
   (f) When legally blocking an eligible pass receiver above the waist.
   Exception: Eligible receivers lined up within two yards of the tackle, whether on or immediately behind the line, may be blocked below the waist at or behind the line of scrimmage. NO eligible receiver may be blocked below the waist after he goes beyond the line.
   Note: Once the quarterback hands off or pitches the ball to a back, or if the quarterback leaves the pocket area, the restrictions on the defensive team relative to the offensive receivers will end, provided the ball is not in the air.

6. A defensive player must not contact an opponent above the shoulders with the palm of his hand except to ward him off on the line. This exception is permitted only if it is not a repeated act against the same opponent during any one contact. In all other cases the palms may be used on head, neck, or face only to ward off or push an opponent in legal attempt to get at the ball.
7. Any offensive player who pretends to possess the ball or to whom a teammate pretends to give the ball may be tackled provided he is crossing his scrimmage line between the ends of a normal tight offensive line.
8. An offensive player who lines up more than two yards outside his own tackle or a player who, at the snap, is in a backfield position and subsequently takes a position more than two yards outside a tackle may not clip an opponent anywhere nor may he contact an opponent below the waist if the blocker is moving toward the ball and if contact is made within an area five yards on either side of the line.
9. A player of either team may block at any time provided it is not pass interference, fair catch interference, or unnecessary roughness.
10. A player may not bat or punch:
    (a) A loose ball (in field of play) toward his opponent's goal line or in any direction in either end zone.
    (b) A ball in player possession or attempt to get possession.
    (c) A pass in flight forward toward opponent's goal line.
    Exception: A forward or backward pass may be batted in any direction at any time by the defense.
11. No player may deliberately kick any ball except as a punt, dropkick, or placekick.

Forward Pass

1. A forward pass may be touched or caught by any eligible receiver. All members of the defensive team are eligible. Eligible receivers on the offensive team are players on either end of line (other than center, guard, or tackle) or players at least one yard behind the line at the snap. A T-formation quarterback is not eligible to receive a forward pass during a play from scrimmage. Exception: T-formation quarterback becomes eligible if pass is previously touched by an eligible receiver.
2. An offensive team may make only one forward pass during each play from scrimmage (Loss of down).
3. The passer must be behind his line of scrimmage (Loss of down and five yards, enforced from the spot of pass).
4. Any eligible offensive player may catch a forward pass. If a pass is touched by one offensive player and touched or caught by a second eligible offensive player, pass completion is legal. Further, all offensive players become eligible once a pass is touched by an eligible receiver or any defensive player.
5. The rules concerning a forward pass and ineligible receivers:
    (a) If ball is touched accidentally by an ineligible receiver on or behind his line: loss of down.
    (b) If ineligible receiver is illegally downfield: loss of 10 yards.
    (c) If touched or caught (intentionally or accidentally) by ineligible receiver beyond the line: loss of 10 yards.
    (d) If ineligible receiver is illegally downfield: loss of 10 yards.
6. If a forward pass is caught simultaneously by eligible players on opposing teams, possession goes to passing team.
7. Any forward pass becomes incomplete and ball is dead if:
    (a) Pass hits the ground or goes out of bounds.
    (b) Hits the goal post or the cross bar of either team.
    (c) Is caught by offensive player after touching ineligible receiver.
    (d) An illegal pass is caught by the passer.
8. A forward pass is complete when a receiver clearly touches the ground with both feet inbounds while in possession of the ball. If a receiver is carried out of bounds by an opponent while in possession in the air, pass is complete at the out-of-bounds spot.
9. If an eligible receiver goes out of bounds accidentally or is forced out by a defender and returns to catch a pass, the play is regarded as a pass caught out of bounds. (Loss of down, no yardage.)
10. On a fourth down pass—when the offensive team is inside the opposition's 20 yard line—an incomplete pass results in a loss of down at the line of scrimmage.
11. If a personal foul is committed by the defense prior to the completion of a pass, the penalty is 15 yards from the spot where ball becomes dead.
12. If a personal foul is committed by the offense prior to the completion of a pass, the penalty is 15 yards from the previous line of scrimmage.

Intentional Grounding of Forward Pass

1. Intentional grounding of a forward pass is a foul: loss of down and 10 yards from previous spot if passer is in the field of play or loss of down at the spot of the foul if it occurs more than 10 yards behind the line or safety if passer is in his own end zone when ball is released.
2. It is considered intentional grounding of a forward pass when the ball strikes the ground after the passer throws, tosses, or lobs the ball to prevent a loss of yards by his team.

Protection of Passer

1. By interpretation, a pass begins when the passer—with possession of ball—starts to bring his hand forward. If ball strikes ground after this action has begun, play is ruled an incomplete pass. If passer loses control of ball prior to his bringing his hand forward, play is ruled a fumble.
2. No defensive player may run into a passer of a legal forward pass after the ball has left his hand (15 yards). The Referee must determine whether opponent had a reasonable chance to stop his momentum during an attempt to block the pass or tackle the passer while he still had the ball.
3. Officials are to blow the play dead as soon as the quarterback is clearly in the grasp of any tackler.

Pass Interference

1. There shall be no interference with a forward pass thrown from behind the line. The restriction for the passing team starts with the snap. The restriction on the defensive team starts when the ball leaves the passer's hand. Both restrictions end when the ball is touched by anyone.
2. The penalty for defensive pass interference is an automatic first down at the spot of the foul. If interference is in the end zone, it is first down for the offense on the defense's 1 yard line. If previous spot was inside the defense's 1 yard line, penalty is half the distance to the goal line.
3. The penalty for offensive pass interference is 10 yards from the previous spot.
4. It is interference when a player's movement beyond the passing team's line materially hinders the progress of an eligible opponent in his attempt to reach a pass.
    Exception: Such incidental movement or contact when two or more eligible players make a simultaneous and bona fide attempt to catch or bat the ball is permitted. "Simultaneous and bona fide" means the contact of an eligible receiver and a defensive player when each is playing the ball and contact is unavoidable and incidental to the act of trying to catch or bat the ball.
5. It must be remembered that defensive players have as much right to the path of the ball as eligible receivers. Any bodily contact, however severe, is not interference if a player is making a bona fide and simultaneous attempt to catch or bat the ball.

Backward Pass

1. Any pass not a forward pass is regarded as a backward pass or lateral. A pass parallel to the line is a backward pass. A runner may pass backward at any time. Any player on either team may catch the pass or recover the ball after it touches the ground.
2. A backward pass that strikes the ground can be recovered and advanced by offensive team.
3. A backward pass that strikes the ground can be recovered but cannot be advanced by the defensive team.
4. A backward pass caught in the air can be advanced by the defensive team.

Fumble

1. The distinction between a fumble and a muff should be kept in mind in considering rules about fumbles. A fumble is the loss of possession of the ball. A muff is the touching of a loose ball by a player in an unsuccessful attempt to obtain possession.
2. A fumble may be advanced by any player on either team regardless of whether recovered before or after ball hits the ground.
3. If an offensive player fumbles anywhere on the field during a fourth down play, or if a player fumbles on any down after the two-minute warning in a half, only the fumbling player is permitted to recover and/or advance the ball. If recovered by any other offensive player, the ball is dead at the spot of the fumble unless it is recovered behind the spot of the fumble. In that case, ball is dead at spot of recovery. Any defensive player may recover and/or advance any fumble.
    Exception: The fourth-down fumble rule does not apply if a player touches, but does not possess, a direct snap from center, i.e., a snap in flight as opposed to hand-to-hand exchange.

Kicks From Scrimmage

1. Any punt or missed field goal that touches a goal post is dead.
2. During a kick from scrimmage, only the end men, as eligible receivers on the line of scrimmage at the time of the snap, are permitted to go beyond the line before the ball is kicked.
    Exception: An eligible receiver who, at the snap, is aligned or in motion behind the line and more than one yard outside the end man on his side of the line, clearly making him the outside receiver, REPLACES that end man as the player eligible to go downfield after the snap. All other members of the kicking team must remain at the line of scrimmage until the ball has been kicked.
3. Any punt that is blocked and does not cross the line of scrimmage can be recovered and advanced by either team. However, if offensive team recovers it must make the yardage necessary for its first down to retain possession if punt was on fourth down.
4. The kicking team may never advance its own kick even though legal recovery is made beyond the line of scrimmage. Possession only.
5. A member of the receiving team may not run into or rough a kicker who kicks from behind his line unless contact is:
    (a) Incidental to and after he had touched ball in flight.
    (b) Caused by kicker's own motions.
    (c) Occurs during a quick kick, or a kick made after a run, or after kicker recovers a loose ball. Ball is loose when kicker muffs snap or snap hits ground.
    (d) Defender is blocked into kicker.
    The penalty for running into the kicker is 5 yards and an automatic first down. For roughing the kicker: 15 yards and disqualification if flagrant.
6. If a member of the kicking team attempting to down the ball on or inside opponent's 5 yard line carries the ball into the end zone, it is a touchback.
7. Fouls during a punt are enforced from the previous spot (line of scrimmage). Exception: Illegal touching, illegal fair catch, invalid fair catch signal, and fouls by the receiving team during loose ball after ball is kicked.
8. While the ball is in the air or rolling on the ground following a punt or field goal attempt and receiving team commits a foul before gaining possession, receiving team will retain possession and will be penalized for its foul.

9. It will be illegal for a defensive player to jump or stand on any player, or be picked up by a teammate or to use a hand or hands on a teammate to gain additional height in an attempt to block a kick (Penalty 15 yards, unsportsmanlike conduct).
10. A punted ball remains a kicked ball until it is declared dead or in possession of either team.
11. Any member of the punting team may down the ball anywhere in the field of play. However, it is illegal touching (Official's time out and receiver's ball at spot of illegal touching). This foul does not offset any foul by receivers during the down.
12. Defensive team may advance all kicks from scrimmage (including unsuccessful field goal) whether or not ball crosses defensive team's goal line. Rules pertaining to kicks from scrimmage apply until defensive team gains possession.

Fair Catch

1. The member of the receiving team must raise one arm full length above his head while kick is in flight. (Failure to give proper sign: receivers' ball five yards behind spot of signal.)
2. No opponent may interfere with the fair catcher, the ball, or his path to the ball. Penalty: 15 yards from spot of foul and fair catch is awarded.
3. A player who signals for a fair catch is not required to catch the ball. However, if a player signals for a fair catch, he may not block or initiate contact with any player on the kicking team until the ball touches a player. Penalty: snap 15 yards behind spot of foul.
4. If ball hits ground or is touched by member of kicking team in flight, fair catch signal is off and all rules for a kicked ball apply.
5. Any undue advance by a fair catch receiver is delay of game. No specific distance is specified for "undue advance" as ball is dead at spot of catch. If player comes to a reasonable stop, no penalty. For violation, five yards.
6. If time expires while ball is in play and a fair catch is awarded, receiving team may choose to extend the period with one free kick down. However, placekicker may not use tee.

Foul on Last Play of Half or Game

1. On a foul by defense on last play of half or game, the down is replayed if penalty is accepted.
2. On a foul by the offense on last play of half or game, the down is not replayed and the play in which the foul is committed is nullified.
   Exception: Fair catch interference, foul following change of possession, illegal touching. No score by offense counts.
3. On double foul on last play of half or game, down is replayed.

Spot of Enforcement of Foul

1. There are four basic spots at which a penalty for a foul is enforced:
   (a) Spot of foul: The spot where the foul is committed.
   (b) Previous spot: The spot where the ball was put in play.
   (c) Spot of snap, pass, fumble, return kick, or free kick: The spot where the act connected with the foul occurred.
   (d) Succeeding spot: The spot where the ball next would be put in play if no distance penalty were to be enforced.
   Exception: If foul occurs after a touchdown and before the whistle for a try-for-point, succeeding spot is spot of next kickoff.
2. All fouls committed by offensive team behind the line of scrimmage and in the field of play shall be penalized from the previous spot.
3. When spot of enforcement for fouls involving defensive holding or illegal use of hands by the defense is behind the line of scrimmage, any penalty yardage to be assessed on that play shall be measured from the line if the foul occurred beyond the line.

Double Foul

1. If there is a double foul during a down in which there is a change of possession, the team last gaining possession may keep the ball unless its foul was committed prior to the change of possession.
2. If double foul occurs after a change of possession, the defensive team retains the ball at the spot of its foul or dead ball spot.
3. If one of the fouls of a double foul involves disqualification, that player must be removed, but no penalty yardage is to be assessed.
4. If the kickers foul during a punt before possession changes and the receivers foul after possession changes, penalties will be offset and the down is replayed.

Penalty Enforced on Following Kickoff

1. When a team scores by touchdown, field goal, extra point, or safety and either team commits a personal foul, unsportsmanlike conduct, or obvious unfair act during the down, the penalty will be assessed on the following kickoff.
